THE NEW EDITION OF THE
Genuine "Oxford" Teachers' Bible.
 WITH ILLUSTRATIONS.

The Most Complete Biblical Compilation of the Nineteenth Century.

With New Helps and a Magnificent New Series of Maps.

Specially prepared to illustrate the geography of Palestine and adjacent countries, from the earliest times to the destruction of Jerusalem, and embodying the most recent discoveries down to March, 1893.

REVISED throughout by the Soundest Biblical Authorities in Accordance with the Most Recent Investigations.

Possession of this will obviate the necessity of a number of books, while it will concentrate the mind of the student on his work.

COMPRISING

Compendious and Exhaustive Information on all points of Biblical Study, Analytical, Critical, Chronological, Historical and Geographical; A Glossary of Antiquities; A Dictionary of Proper Names and Subjects; A Concordance, and a New Indexed Atlas and Maps; Sixty-four full-page plates, being Authentic Reproductions of Documents, Monuments and Contemporary Portraits, Illustrating the History of the Old and New Testaments.

This well-known volume in its present form has lost nothing of its former utility, but is further enriched with new authentic information of every description, arranged with the closest attention to facility of reference. Thus enlarged, the book has become by far the most instructive and exhaustive compendium of every kind of information essential to Biblical study.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS.

The Illustrations form a distinctive feature of the new edition, and present a novel and valuable departure, never before attempted in works of this description on a scale so full and complete. They have been selected and described by E. Maunde Thompson, D. C. L., LL. D., Principal Librarian of the British Museum; A. S. Murray, LL. D., F. S. A., Keeper of Greek and Roman Antiquities, British Museum; and E. A. Wallis Budge, Litt. D., F. S. A., Acting Assistant-Keeper of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities, British Museum. Special care has been taken to insert only authentic copies of objects which bear upon matters recorded in Holy Scripture. To each illustration is added a short description, supplying dates and facts.

This New Edition is also supplied without the Illustrations.

*The Grand Rapids School Furniture Co., Grand Rapids Mich.: GENTLEMEN—*Referring to your letter of March 2d, in reference to the chairs placed in our hall. We have, so far, had no occasion to find anything but satisfaction with the goods which you have placed in our hall. The automatic hinge is exceptionally valuable, and its working is thoroughly practical, and, as we believe, bound to be durable. We have had a number of inquiries in reference to the place where we bought these chairs, and we are always glad to say a good word for them. We regret, however, that we allowed so many of the 18-in. chairs to be placed. The only complaints we have had have been from people who have felt that they were cramped for room. Hoping that you may have a large sale for your goods, I remain, yours truly,

Following the instructions of the Indianapolis Convention, the Committee has administered the wide work intrusted to it in all its departments, on both the home and foreign field, with careful reference to the means and resources provided by the Associations and their friends.

I.—The monthly meetings of the Committee have been regularly held, at which the sub-committees on Finance, the General Work, the College, Railroad, German, Physical, Educational, and Office and Publication Departments, and on the Foreign Work, have submitted reports and recommendations concerning the work and future movements of the Committee's secretaries. The meetings of the Committee and of the sub-committees have been attended by the general and office secretaries, to whom has been referred the detail work necessitated by the action there taken.

The resignations of Messrs. William H. Sage and George F. Peabody, as members of the Committee, were reluctantly accepted, and Mr. Charles F. Cox, of New York, was elected to fill one of the vacancies last October.

A conference of the Committee and its secretaries was held in New York, September 12-17, 1893, in which all departments of the international work were carefully considered. By this means the comprehensive administration of the work by the Committee and its intelligent prosecution by the secretaries were effectively promoted.

II.—The Board of Trustees held its annual meeting March 13, 1894, in New York. Mr. Jonathan N. Harris positively declining re-election, Mr. Samuel Colgate was chosen president, and Mr. John S. Bussing was re-elected treasurer.

The treasurer received on April 9, 1894, from the heirs of the estate of Mr. Sidney Dillon, a fund of $25,000, to be known as "The Sidney Dillon Fund," the income of which is to be applied toward the support of Railroad Departments organized at points on the lines of the Union Pacific Railway system among its employees. Mr. Dillon took a deep interest in the welfare of railroad employees, especially on the Union Pacific road, with the management of which he was so long connected. His knowledge of the railroad department of the Association as it existed on that road led him warmly to approve of it, and his intention to bequeath a fund in aid of it, though not expressed in his will, had been made known to his heirs—Mrs. Peter B. Wyckoff, Mrs. G. S. Moulton, and Messrs. Sidney Dillon Ripley and Harry Dillon Ripley—who have most generously united in the gift of this fund bearing the name of Mr. Dillon and devoted to the welfare of railroad employees.

III.—1. By the courtesy of Mr. J. J. McWilliams, of Buffalo, and at his home, a parlor conference of friends of the Committee was held on November 14, 1893.

The annual dinner meeting of the Committee, with its secretaries and friends, was held in New York, November 23, 1893.

At the invitation of the St. Louis Association, members, secretaries and friends of the Committee were entertained at a dinner in that city December 5, 1893.

At all these meetings the international work was fully presented, and the satisfaction expressed by the many friends present served to confirm the Committee in its estimate of the great value of such meetings.

2. The Association exhibit at the Columbian Exposition attracted very general notice. The portion relating to the educational department received high commendation, and the whole exhibit was ranked among those worthy of special mention and attention.

A program was prepared for the World's Congress of the Associations, which was held on Association Day, October 6th, in the Memorial Art Palace, Chicago. Important papers were read and addresses made by Elbert B. Monroe, Chairman of the International Committee, Lord Kinnaird, President John M. Coulter of Lake Forest University, William E. Dodge, Cephas Brainerd, C. M. Hobbs, of Denver, E. L. Shuey, of Dayton, and L. D. Wishard.

IV.—At 33 State and Provincial Conventions during 1893 the Committee was represented by its own members and secretaries, and by leading friends of the work. A total of 5,803 delegates from 980 Associations attended these conventions, bringing report concerning a work for young men full of promise. In almost every instance ample provision for the State work of the coming year was made by the delegates. This was often unexpected, owing to the general financial stringency prevailing throughout the country.

V.—Following the instructions of the Indianapolis Convention, the committee has issued credentials to delegates to the World's Conference to be held in London June 1-7. Appropriate observance has also been promoted in this country of the Jubilee (June 6) of the parent London Association, and a call has been issued to all the Associations to commemorate this anniversary with some suitable semi-centennial observance. In connection with such services it has been recommended, at the suggestion of various friends, that contributions be made by the Associations and those interested in their labors toward a permanent fund in support of the work of supervision and extension entrusted by the Conventions to the International Committee.

As a tribute to Mr. George Williams, the honored founder of the London Association, an appropriate memorial address has been prepared for presentation to him on Jubilee Day, in the name of the Associations of North America, and signed by the members, trustees and secretaries of the International Committee and by the chairmen and secretaries of the State and Provincial Committees.

VI.—TERRITORIAL ADMINISTRATION.

1. In the South and Southwest.—The members of the Committee in the South and Southwest have co-operated effectively with the secretaries assigned to those sections—H. P. Andersen, with headquarters at Atlanta, and Cecil L. Gates, at Kansas City.

(1) The State organizations have been strengthened. Mr. Andersen, early in 1893, at the request and with the co-operation of the State Committee, prepared for and aided in conducting the Georgia Convention. He also arranged for the securing of W. M. Lewis as the State Secretary of both Georgia and South Carolina. To Alabama and Mississippi he rendered a similar service in arranging for F. L. Willis as their State Secretary. For Tennessee, in its time of emergency last fall, at the request of its State Committee he arranged for and attended the State Convention, and by timely visitation conserved the work in the whole State.

Mr. Andersen has also rendered valuable aid to the local organizations at Augusta, Atlanta, Athens and Rome, Ga.; Greensboro and Asheville, N. C.; Memphis and Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mt. Sterling, Ky., and at several other points. He has attended thirteen meetings of State Committees, the State Conventions of Georgia, Virginia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Alabama and Mississippi, besides several district and secretarial conferences. Throughout the Southeast Mr. Andersen's work has been effective and helpful.

(2) Mr. Gates after useful visitation last spring in Colorado, at Salt Lake City and at the City of Mexico, spent considerable time in Nebraska, Idaho, Kansas and Arkansas in aiding local and Railroad Associations. In Kansas effective work was done at many points preliminary to the State Convention.

In October Mr. Gates was assigned specially to the Southwest, with headquarters at Kansas City, and since then has rendered important service on that field, and has served temporarily as acting State Secretary of Missouri. The work of the whole year has required of him 114 visits to 52 towns in 17 States; 22 meetings of state and local committees, and boards of directors; 51 public addresses; attendance at the State Conventions of Ohio, Kansas, Missouri and Texas, and 138 important interviews with officers and leaders in the work and in railroad management.

Ten Associations in four Southern States were aided by T. K. Cree last Spring, including a protracted building fund canvass in Augusta, Ga.

(3) Among young colored men an excellent and effective work has been accomplished by the Committee's Secretary in that important field, William A. Hunton.

Two useful conferences have been planned and conducted by him, one for Virginia and North Carolina at Norfolk and the other for College Associations at Nashville, both being well attended.

Mr. Hunton has also made useful visits to fourteen colored Associations in as many cities, and to three points where the work is not yet organized. 185 days were spent by him in conference with Association officers and in giving the aid needed at these points, much help being in the line of financial solicitation for the necessary expenses of the local work. Self-support of existing Associations in this field is yet very difficult. The rapid formation of new organizations is not therefore encouraged until a better development of existing work is assured. Substantial progress has, however, been made the past year, and new Associations were organized at Kittrell, N. C., Memphis and Little Rock; also at Pittsburgh, Pa., and at New Haven, Conn.

To 20 College Associations Mr. Hunton made 24 visits, occupying 45 days, and resulting in improved methods of work, an increase of Bible classes, and many conversions. His visitation has extended into 14 States.

2. In the West and Northwest.—(1) While C. K. Ober has given counsel and help to both Mr. Andersen and Mr. Gates upon their fields, he has been chiefly occupied in the West and Northwest, with headquarters at Chicago, whither he removed from Kansas City after he had arranged for Mr. Gates to succeed him there. His work has, therefore, comprised development of the work in the Southwest, in which he was succeeded by Mr. Gates; co-operation with Mr. Andersen in the South and the taking up of work in the West and Northwest, with residence at Chicago. He has visited points of greatest need in Nebraska, the Dakotas, Minnesota and Manitoba; attending conventions in Iowa and Michigan, and corresponding and counseling with State committees and workers in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin.

Mr. Ober has also visited the Santee Indian Agency in Nebraska, and with the co-operation of Mr. Cochran, the Vice-Chairman of the International Committee, has conducted negotiations with Indian Associations and secured contributions from their friends, which give promise of enabling the Committee soon to place in the field a competent Indian Secretary for work among young men of his own race.

To bring deliverance to city Associations in financial distress for current expenses or building funds has for years been a very serious problem. The raising of money for the relief of such Associations by International and State Secretaries has made their lives a burden and has overtaxed their time, which ought rather to be given to the supervision for which they are specially trained and set apart, and which if neglected by them will not be done. As experiments looking toward the solution of this problem Messrs. Ober and Weidensall have recently arranged for a financial work by W. E. Lougee, at Hastings, Neb., and East Saginaw, Mich., on a plan which in both places has proved entirely satisfactory to the brethren there and at whose expense the experiments were made. "A fit man" is the factor indispensable to the success of this Association life-saving service. In answer to prayer and effort, it is hoped that such men will be raised up to supply this urgent need of the Associations.

(2) Robert Weidensall has effectively co-operated in the Western work, attended the Illinois and Nebraska Conventions, and the Western Secretarial Institute. He has also made many public addresses, and has specially aided in Nebraska the Lincoln and Hastings Associations in time of financial difficulty.

(3) Henry E. Brown participated in the Bible work of the Illinois Convention and of the Western Secretarial Institute, and visited fourteen places in three Western States. Mr. Brown's varied and useful career as a secretary of the Committee, as stated in the report presented to the Indianapolis Convention, closed December 31st.

(4) John R. Hague also devoted considerable time to this field, aiding local Associations and State Committees. The resignation of Mr. Hague was accepted September 1st with deep regret. He carries with him into the church work which he has undertaken the brotherly sympathy of all who have been associated with him during his many years of fruitful effort in Christ's name among young men.

3. In the East and Canada.—The Eastern and Middle States, in which many of the stronger State organizations are found, have been visited as occasion arose by Messrs. Morse, Cree, and other secretaries located in New York city. Mr. Hague also spent considerable time in New England, where, among other duties, he represented the Committee at the Maine Convention. He also visited four points in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. In addition to a representative of the college work, Mr. Cree attended the convention in New Hampshire, Mr. Morse in Massachusetts, and Mr. Wishard in Vermont.

The convention of the Maritime Provinces last Summer was attended by T. K. Cree and George A. Hall, and that for the Pacific Northwest, held at Victoria, B. C., by F. B. Pratt, C. J. Hicks and W. H. Williams. In both cases neighboring Associations were visited and encouraged. The Ontario Convention was attended by Mr. Morse, who sought at the same time to render aid to the Toronto Association. Mr. Cree has since spent ten days with the same Association.

H. E. Brown participated in the Canadian Northwest Convention at Winnipeg, and visited ten villages in Manitoba, holding meetings for the promotion of Bible study and active Christian work among young men.

VII.—THE EXTENSION FUND.

The time and efforts of S. A. Taggart have been divided between attention to Extension Work and co-operation in the general work of the Committee. In promoting the work of special extension by the organization of Extension Fund Committees, and advising concerning their methods, he has visited 41 Associations, chiefly in the Eastern and Middle States, addressing meetings of members and counseling with officers and committees. A number of these places have been visited more than once. He has also attended the State Conventions of Pennsylvania, Arkansas and Minnesota, and two district conferences.

The Extension Work can be easily undertaken and as easily abandoned by an Association. Wherever competent management can be secured, especially in the person of one capable and interested leader upon the Extension Fund Committee, the work promotes systematic giving among our members and intelligent interest in the growth of work for young men at home and abroad. The progress made by such Associations as have been blessed with such leadership ought to awaken earnest prayer and inquiry to discover in every Association this needed worker and organizer.

VIII.—DEPARTMENTAL WORK.

1. In the College Department John R. Mott's work may be outlined as follows :

(1) Visitation. Forty-four College Associations were visited, and eight city Associations in twenty-one States and two provinces.

(2) Organization. Assistance was rendered in perfecting organizations at three points.

(3) Conventions. In order to insure a more thorough supervision of the college field, Mr. Mott has spent fully five months in attending conventions and conferences and in preparation therefor. The list includes two summer schools, two deputation conferences, five presidential conferences, four State conventions, one International Convention, five conferences of secretaries, one missionary conference and the students' congress of the World's Columbian Exposition.

(4) Correspondence. Owing to the fact that during a part of the year there was no secretary devoting his entire attention to the office department of the college work, much more time than usual was spent in looking after the steadily increasing volume of correspondence.

(5) Matters Receiving Special Attention. More time than ever has been devoted by Mr. Mott, as Chairman of its Executive Committee, to the Students Volunteer Movement. This movement has made more substantial progress during this year than during any year since its organization.

Special prayer and attention have also been given to the promotion of spiritual awakenings in the colleges. Many others have co-operated very earnestly. It is gratifying to note that several hundred more college men have been led through this special effort to accept Christ than during any preceding year in the history of the College Associations.

In visitation a great deal of time has been spent in State universities. Further careful attention to this exceedingly important part of the college field will be amply repaid by even more blessed results than have yet been experienced.

2. F. S. Brockman has engaged in extensive visitation touching the colleges and attending the State Conventions in nearly every Southern State. 83 visits were made to 67 institutions, and five new Associations were formed. He has also attended two summer schools, the International Convention and secretaries' conference, and a deputation and a presidential conference.

3. Logan Herbert Roots has visited colleges in seven States, and conducted two college conferences on the Pacific Coast. He also attended the summer schools, the Alabama Convention, and the Western Deputation Conference. His engagement as a secretary of the Committee expired September 1, 1893, but since that time he has represented the Committee at the New England State Conventions and visited several Associations.

4. E. Lawrence Hunt has visited the Pacific Slope, giving most attention to such leading institutions as the University of California and Stanford University, organizing three Associations and participating in a college conference.

5. As representatives of the Committee, John L. Marshall, Jr., spent a month among the Kansas colleges; W. H. Sallmon visited the Maritime Provinces and conducted a students' conference, and Gilbert A. Beaver attended the New England presidential conference.

2. The Railroad Department has taken most of the time of C. J. Hicks during the year. Since June 1st he has been assisted in this work by E. L. Hamilton. The depression in railroad business has rendered impossible any marked extension, although new Associations have been opened at Gladstone and Clifton Forge, Va., where the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company has erected new Association buildings, and at Watertown, N. Y., where a secretary has been placed on the pay-roll of the Company.

The Directors of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway have contributed $2,000 for an Association library to be located at Clifton Forge for the use of Association members along the line of the road. Much care has been taken in the selection of this library, and its catalogue has been placed on the list of publications sold by the Committee as a model list for Railroad Associations.

A thorough visitation of all the Railroad Associations in the West, and of many in the East, has been made. The year has in many respects tested the quality and standing of the Railroad Department, as railroad officials have been forced to reduce expenses wherever possible. Especially has this been the case where receivers have been appointed to manage the roads. But in spite of these demands for economical administration, but few reductions have been made in the appropriations granted for the support of this work, and but a single Association (North La Crosse, Wis.) has closed its doors. Much time has been required of the Railroad Secretaries of the Committee in acquainting new officials and receivers with the basis and character of the Railroad Association work.

March 29-April 1 the Seventh International Railroad Conference was held in the Railroad Men's Building, New York City. This was the largest and most helpful Railroad Conference thus far held, over three hundred delegates being in attendance.

The opening of a new $50,000 building by the Pennsylvania Railroad Department of Philadelphia, and of a large addition doubling the former capacity of the Railroad Men's Building in New York City, are two of the most encouraging items of the year.

The railroad committee has been greatly helped in the administration of its work by its new chairman, Charles F. Cox, Vice-President of the Canada Southern Railway.

3. Mr. Olandt's attention has been given chiefly to the internal development of existing German branches, including aid in several important building movements, and efforts to secure and train desirable secretaries and physical directors.

4. Mr. Hodge, in caring for the Educational Department, has given the valuable aid and counsel of an expert to directors, educational committees and secretaries at 58 points in 11 States. He has successfully promoted educational exhibits at the International and several State Conventions. He made or collected a large part of the admirable Association exhibit at the Columbian Exposition. These practical object lessons have done more for the useful growth of the educational work than months of discussion. Mr. Hodge has also prepared the Committee's valuable pamphlet, No. 656, on "Educational Class Work."

Among encouraging results may be mentioned: (1), 100 associations are making more intelligent study of the needs of the young men in their communities, in order to better adapt their educational classes to such needs; (2), industrial art education, shop work and instruction in lines of practical science and in mechanical and architectural drawing are offered by a growing number of Associations; (3), endowments of their educational departments have been given to several Associations; (4), the securing of systematic courses in mechanical and architectural drawing and other forms of industrial work by 25 Associations, through the co-operation of the Pratt Institute, will greatly promote a uniform, higher standard of work; (5), educational work has been given far more prominence at conferences and conventions than ever before.

5. Physical Department work has been carried on under the leadership of Dr. Gulick on the same lines as in previous years. A growing number of Associations receive counsel and help regarding this department, and several State Committees are looking after it with intelligence and vigor. Indoor athletic contests are the chief new feature. George W. Ehler, of Chicago, has kindly consented to superintend interstate work between Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Indiana and Michigan, without expense to the Committee.

IX.—THE CENTRAL OFFICE.

The secretaries who spend most of their time at the office have been fully occupied with the correspondence, including that relating to finances, secretarial work and building movements; preparation of publications; and consultation with visitors, who come on all sorts of errands. The growth of the work in the field steadily increases that which must be done in the office. Twenty-two new pamphlets and leaflets have been issued.

The resignation of Curtis M. Thorpe, who for ten years had rendered a very efficient service in connection with many business details, was reluctantly accepted in October. His position is filled by George L. Leonard.

The Historical Library now contains 2,094 volumes in twenty-one languages. 197 Association periodicals were received during 1893.

The Day and Week of Prayer were widely observed last November, owing in part to extended effort by the Committee and its secretaries. More than ever it is becoming a season of spiritual blessing throughout the brotherhood. This is realized the present year to an unusual extent by the College Associations.

In aid of the international work, 565 Associations took up collections aggregating $6,857.97.

X.—THE FOREIGN WORK.

This naturally divides itself into the work on the foreign field and the administration of the Foreign Department at the office of the Committee.

1. The Foreign Field. (1.) Japan. The year closed with 30 Associations, 15 of them being composed of students. Four city Associations employ Japanese general secretaries. A building—the gift of a business man in America—costing $2,000, was erected in Kyoto during the year for the Association in the government college. The building of the Tokyo Association was nearly completed. The summer school was attended by 600 students, being the largest gathering of Christian students ever held, excepting the Student Missionary Volunteer conventions in America. Messrs. Swift and Miller reached the end of their busiest year greatly encouraged by the results of the work.

(2.) India. The number of Associations in India at the close of the year was 80, five of which are composed of students. One new building was secured. The Week of Prayer was observed in Madras with excellent results. Mr. McConaughy reports the conversion of ten associate members during the year. Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell White sailed for Calcutta in September, arriving early in December. He has already established an Association composed of young business men, and has been warmly welcomed by the missionaries, business men and the Indian Christians.

(3.) Brazil. Myron A. Clark, after eighteen months of successful study of the language, chose Rio de Janeiro as the headquarters and point of departure for the Association movement in Brazil. An Association has been organized, which has maintained its existence in spite of the demoralized condition of the city during the recent war.

(4.) Fields without secretaries. Favorable reports have been received concerning the Associations in China, Ceylon, Persia, Asia Minor, Syria and European Turkey. The first College Association in South America has recently been organized in the International Institute, Santiago, Chili. An urgent appeal has been received from the missionaries of Cheefoo, in North China, for a secretary.

2. The Administration of the Foreign Department of the Committee has required of Mr. Wishard : (1), extensive tours among Associations and conventions to promote the support of the foreign work ; (2), search for suitable secretaries for the fields to which missionaries have called men ; (3), public presentation of the facts of the foreign movement in leading churches, before church clubs and various Christian conventions ; (4), increase of the supporters of the work ; (5), conference with the foreign committee concerning important matters submitted to the Committee by the secretaries on the field ; (6), correspondence in connection with the foregoing lines of work.

RICHARD C. MORSE,

SUCCESSOR OF THE
"UNABRIDGED"

Every Association should have this work in its Library. It answers questions concerning the history, spelling, pronunciation, and meaning of words.

It is a Library in Itself. It gives the often desired information concerning eminent persons; facts concerning the countries, cities, towns, and natural features of the globe; particulars concerning the noted fictitious persons and places; translation of foreign quotations. It is invaluable in the home, office, study and schoolroom.

It is the One Great Standard Authority. So writes HON. D. J. BREWER, Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court.

 A saving of three cents per day for a year will provide more than enough money to purchase a copy of the International.

Every State Superintendent of Schools Now in Office Commends it.

The late Rev. Henry Ward Beecher said, in answer to an anxious inquirer :—“A wise Life Insurance of $5,000 or $10,000, payable at the death of the insurer, does not benefit his wife and children only after his death, but it is of great use to the man himself. It tends to make him economical, methodical and frugal in his expenditures, cuts off many indulgences which would waste his means, and gives quiet to his mind in business troubles and especially in sickness and in prospect of death. He does not look in anguish on the prospect of his family at his death loaded with the expense of his sickness, funeral expenses, &c., and thrown upon the world without means of livelihood, at a time when grief will go far to paralyze their energies.

Take out, then, young man, a good policy in a sound Life Insurance Co., a non-forfeitable policy, as large as you can afford, and as years roll on thank God that, should you die, your family will not fall into the bitter woes of poverty.”

These Works cover an area of 1,200 acres, employ about 18,000 men, have the most improved plant, and stand unique, from the fact that they have their own Ore and Coal Mines, Blast Furnaces, etc., and that every stage of manufacture is under their own supervision, and are not (like others) dependent on the open market for a miscellaneous assortment of crude material, which, in connection with 75 years' experience, enables them to turn out a product of a very superior quality, second to none, and at the same time the different grades of Steel are always of the same uniform quality.

*Locomotive Tires, Steel Tired Wheels,

Steel of every description Forged, Rolled, etc., into

After a test of over 35 years, the "Krupp Tire" has proved itself to be the best in the market, and parties intending ordering Locomotives would do well to insert in their specifications that "Krupp Tires" be used on drivers, and thereby obtain an article which will give satisfaction.
